

Winners Photo Contest

The Delaware Division of Fish and Wildlife's Hunting Photo Contest aims to showcase hunting activities throughout Delaware. The statewide photography competition has just completed its thirteenth year. The theme for the 2024/2025 contest was "Adventures in Hunting."

Entries were judged by Fish and Wildlife's Director Pat Emory, along with the Wildlife Section's Deer Biologist, Sam Millman, and our Delaware Bayshore Planner, Amanda Delayo. Below are the top five. The first-place photograph is also featured on the cover. Visit <http://de.gov/fwphotos> for details.

1st Place

"Dawn in the Salt Marsh", taken by Mari Grehofsky of Dagsboro featuring Clayton Townsend and his good dog Maggie enjoying a beautiful hunting day on the water at the Assawoman Wildlife Area.

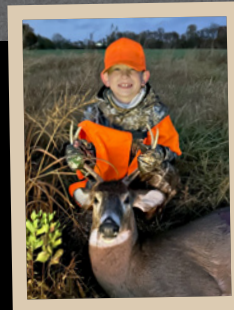

2nd Place

"Getting the Boat Out After a Busy Morning", taken by Tommy Dorsi of Milford, featuring Rylan Dorsi about to head out for a hunting adventure on the water at the Ted Harvey Wildlife Area.

In addition, three honorable mentions were selected and are presented here:

"Opening Morning Gobbler with Dad", by Danny Macklin of Camden featuring himself with his daughter Olivia who just finished up a successful day of turkey hunting in Camden.

"Trevor's First Buck", taken by Lee Shane of Smyrna, featuring his son Trevor with his first ever buck harvest.

"Family Tradition... Raising My Hunting Buddy!", by Earl B. Tingle, Jr. of Clayton featuring himself and his son James and their goose harvest after a great day of enjoying father and son time while hunting in the Delaware Wild Lands, Betts Farm in Middletown.

Congratulations to all the winners!
